Employers, are you searching for talent but challenged in finding workers?

Expand Your Talent Pool: Job Seekers Experiencing Homelessness

Businesses that engage in expansive and creative thinking about their workforce can and do find workers to fill job openings!

Employers can receive up to $30,000 through the Homeless Hiring Tax Credit for hiring job seekers experiencing homelessness and providing access to good quality jobs!

Join us in-person for a panel discussion and information about how the Homeless Hiring Tax Credit can enrich your recruitment efforts while learning about the career journeys of job seekers experiencing homelessness.
